

Cvičné zadanie písomnej formy internej časti maturitnej skúšky
v školskom roku 2019/2020

Predmet: anglický jazyk

Úroveň: C1

Téma: People and Society – Civil Responsibility

Read the following ideas and choose one of them. Write a comparative essay (260 – 320 words), justifying your opinion on the idea:

- “Someone who refuses or has no need to live in a society because of their self-sufficiency has to be an animal or the God.” (Aristotle)
- “A human is good by nature, but later becomes depraved by society.” (J. J. Rousseau)
- “A beggar is a person who counted on friends’ helping hands.” (A. Bierce)

Cvičné zadanie písomnej formy internej časti maturitnej skúšky
v školskom roku 2019/2020

Predmet: anglický jazyk

Úroveň: C1

Téma: Science and technology – Science in human´s service

Read the following ideas and choose one of them. Write an opinion essay (260 – 320 words), justifying your opinion on the idea:

- “Art is the tree of life; science is the tree of death.” (W. Blake)
- “Science has its meaning when it is considered as the way towards the truth, and the truth means a human´s well-being.” (John Paul II.)
- “Science can be found in the roots of progress which makes our lives easier and reduces people´s suffering.” (M. Curie-Sklodowska)

Cvičné zadanie písomnej formy internej časti maturitnej skúšky
v školskom roku 2019/2020

Predmet: anglický jazyk

Úroveň: C1

Téma: Shopping and Services – Consumer lifestyle

Read the following ideas and choose one of them. Write an opinion essay (260 – 320 words), justifying your opinion on the idea:

- “People don't want anything for free unless the price is not reasonable.” (Mohith Agadi)
- “If they say it is not about money but principles, they actually mean it is.” (Albert Einstein)
- “Happiness is not valued by money but health and satisfaction.” (Quintus Horatius Flaccus)